

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Broken brain should receive as much care as broken limb, says Health Commissioner Robertson.

Federal trade commission says within 6 months United States will enter upon most prosperous period.

Over 2,000,000 bushels wheat purchased for France and Italy in last 30 days.

H. A. Azouz, U. of C. student, unexpectedly becomes heir to $150,000 from relative in Turkey.

Fashion Art League of America must have spite at husbands. Decrees that dresses next year shall button down back.

Carl Meyers admits falseness of his story to police that Hazel Anderson, 4645 Malden av., took $1,600 from him in cafe. Says illness makes him think he is wealthy when he drinks.

Geo. K. Wentworth, Chicago lumber dealer, adjudged incompetent in California, resisting bankruptcy. Insists he has $4,250,000 to pay $1,500,000 debts.

Anna Urwanawich, gypsy, held to grand jury on larceny charge.

Edw. Kubat, 20, held. Robbery charge. When he broke former promise to reform Elizabeth Clohesy, his sweetheart, committed suicide.

John Ryberg and Louis Walzien placed on trial after being in jail since March. Charge stealing Sears-Roebuck goods from freight car.

Mrs. B. S. Striblem suing Wm. S. McCrea, treasurer People's Gas Co., and C. K. G. Billings for $25,000.

Minnie Seltenreich, telephone girl, granted $20,000 verdict against Chicago Telephone Co. Shocked by current.

John McGillen, driver, exonerated in death of Marina Edwards, 5, who fell under wheels.

Warren Orne suing Wm. H. Cotter. Claims injury by Cotter's auto.

Mrs. Valeria Havlin, accused by Mrs. Angelina Strong, 3863 Ellis av., of stealing $25,000 worth of jewelry and $125, in custody in St. Louis.

Emil Kisch ran amuck in Desplaines station. Smashed chair over policeman's head; cut Dr. Henry Steible with knife. Now in straight jacket.

Wm. Saklson, 1034 W. Harrison, 18 months, dead. Fell from stepladder.

Mrs. Celia Seiner, 2117 Warren av., injured. Hit by car, Madison and Franklin.

Michael Carnecki freed by coroner's jury for killing Jos. Salapatek in Phoenix, Ill., saloon, Saturday. Self defense.

Helen Schoeniger, 8, 7510 Malvern av., lost in Lincoln park. Found at W. 12th and 42d av. Walked there.

July grand jury returned indictments against owners of 6 blind pigs.

Harry Piper, named in suppressed indictment, arrested. Advertised for partner with $750.

Matthew Egrashetz and wife, proprietors of saloon at Webster and Lewis, fined $50 for refusing to close place.

New survey to be made to discover whether saloons on Devon av. are encroaching on dry territory. 4-mile radius surrounding Northwestern U.

Capt. O'Brien of Cottage Grove av. station ordered saloonkeepers and cafe owners to stop using red lights. They attract undesirables.

Lady Duff Gordon arrived in Chicago to superintend the opening of dress shop in former residence of Franklin McVeagh, 1400 Lake Shore drive.

Mike Magerak, 8, found lost by Desplaines st. police. Bathed in prisoners' drinking water. Later parents claimed him.

Gallows shipped from Cook county jail to Joliet for execution of Frank Repetto Friday.

D. C. Pendry, Cincinnati, arrested for mashing. Attempted to suicide by butting iron bars of cell. Fined $100 by judge.

Head of Florida Everglades Land Co. says company is open for probe. Blames federal politics for investiga-